

Out of State Extension

Connecticut residents with vehicles located out of state at the time of their scheduled test date and 30 days after that may apply for a time extension. For more information on the required documentation needed and where to submit requests for approval, please click here.

Reciprocity Testing

You may be eligible to receive a reciprocal test from one of the following jurisdictions. Vehicles registered in Connecticut may be tested in one of these jurisdictions and comply with Connecticut's testing requirements. If your vehicle is eligible to receive a comparable emissions test in one of the following jurisdictions, you may apply for an extension equivalent to the two (2) year compliance your vehicle would receive in Connecticut. However, some of these jurisdictions may NOT be able to accommodate your vehicle's testing requirements, and in some cases, emissions testing is restricted to specific counties or regions. For further eligibility information, please be sure to check with the applicable jurisdiction before attempting an emissions test.

In general, the most common test is the On-Board Diagnostic (OBD) Test; all the jurisdictions listed here perform this test, however, there may be restrictions on model year and the Gross Vehicle Weight Rating (GVWR). To determine the test type required for your vehicle, please visit the CT Emissions Program website.
